

Presidential Partners Program

An Invitation from President Dr. Clark Harris

Thank you for your consideration of becoming a Presidential Partner at Northern.

It warms my heart as I talk with individuals in all of our communities hearing how people express their love and passion for the success for Northern Oklahoma College. Alumni and other community supporters are frequently sharing stories of how Northern has changed their lives and the lives of family and friends. These are OUR stories and WE are the Northern Family.

With the Presidential Partners Program, you can assist Northern in supporting innovative faculty, staff, and student activities that engage students and strengthen the quality of our students' college experience. Your support as a Presidential Partner provides funding for life-changing student experiences, professional development for faculty and staff, and enhancements to student recruitment and promotion of the college and unique campus experiences.

Northern students who become actively involved in campus today, become campus leaders who will become leaders of our communities in the near future. The impact of your investment in the Presidential Partners Program will be seen in our college and our communities for years to come. Your investment in the Presidential Partners Program is an investment in the future of OUR community.

Thank you for your support of Northern Oklahoma College.

Sincerely,

Clark Harris, Ph. D.
President, Northern Oklahoma College

Why should I join?

Presidential Partners provide the resources that create opportunities for individuals and groups to be involved in activities that enhance their classroom learning beyond their everyday activities.
