

NORTHERN OKLAHOMA COLLEGE

Presidential Partners Program

An Invitation from President Dr. Clark Harris

Thank you for your investment in the students and employees of Northern Oklahoma College.

Northern Oklahoma College continuously ranks amongst the top community colleges. Your contribution helps us continue that tradition of excellence.

With the Presidential Partners Program, your contributions will help Northern support innovative faculty, staff and student activities. You are also investing in our students as they will have professional growth opportunities that they wouldn't normally be able to experience. You are investing in employees that take advantage of specialized professional development.

The overall outcome of these activities will strengthen the quality of the college experience for the students at Northern.

Your investment strengthens our college, which in turn strengthens our communities. The impact of your investment in the Presidential Partners Program will be seen in our college and our communities for years to come.

The investment like the one you are considering will change lives. As individuals share their story of how Northern has changed their life, or the life of a family member, it warms my heart. I am delighted to hear the love and respect that people express for Northern and the unique experiences they enjoyed. Let's continue to provide these life changing experiences at Northern Oklahoma College.

Thank you for your continuing support of Northern Oklahoma College.

Sincerely,

Clark Harris, Ph. D.

President, Northern Oklahoma College

Why should I join?

Presidential Partners provide the resources that create opportunities for individuals and groups to be involved in activities that enhance their classroom learning beyond their everyday activities.
